THE GENOCIDE CONVENTION A Surrender To The Invisible Government

By Merwin K. Hart, President, National Economic Council, Inc. . . . Letter 232

The so-called Genocide Convention is before the Foreign Relations Committee of the United States Senate. The National Economic Council is promised a hearing shortly. But citizens everywhere who value the American way of life should acquaint themselves with what this convention will do to them and their country and should express their views to their Senators.

From the standpoint of vital American interests, it is a suicide convention.

The full title is "Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide."

WHAT RATIFICATION WOULD MEAN

If ratified, this Genocide Convention will, under the Constitution, become the supreme law of the land. So far as they may be inconsistent, it will supersede the Constitutions of the forty-eight states and the statutes that have been or may be passed thereunder; and, it will similarly nullify the statutes of the United States. Opinions differ as to whether it would also supersede any inconsistent provisions of the Constitution of the United States.

Hence, this proposed treaty is a matter of first importance.

The Genocide Convention has been drawn up and approved under the General Assembly of the United Nations. Clearly it is just one more illustration of the disposition of UN and the so-called alphabetical agencies, which are in some way related to UN, to tie the whole world in knots. To us Americans it is one more proposal to hand over an important part of the sovereignty of the people of the United States to an international committee in which the United States would be in a hopeless minority.

It is thus an important link in the chain of proposals to dismember the American Republic, and to reduce the American people to slavery under a communist-controlled world government.

Like all similar proposals, it is the work of a minority that knows exactly what it wants.

A BRAND NEW WORD!

What is Genocide? The 1948 edition of Webster's dictionary does not list the word. Like so much of the jargon of the past few years it has been thought up and coined by the internationalist smart boys—obviously to serve a very special purpose.

What does the Genocide Convention do, and how does it propose to do it?

Clues are given in the opening provisions that read as follows:

"The Contracting Parties (that is the nations that ratify),

"Having considered the declaration made by the General Assembly of the United Nations in its resolution 96 (1) dated 11 December 1946 that genocide is a crime under international law, contrary to the spirit and aims of the United Nations and condemned by the civilized world;

"Recognizing that at all periods of history genocide has inflicted great losses on humanity; and

"Being convinced that, in order to liberate mankind from such an odious scourge, international cooperation is required,

"Hereby agree as hereinafter provided."

At the very beginning it is obvious that

THE AMERICAN WAY

Caught In The Act

VENGEANCE AT NUREMBERG?

On December 17, 1942, Mr. Eden, in the House of Commons, gave a "Declaration" about the Jews in the name of the United Nations. As far as I know this is only the second time the word "Declaration" has been used by a British politician . . . Mr. Eden's Declaration was specifically and exclusively limited to the Jews and said "Those responsible for these crimes shall not escape retribution." No single word was given to the crimes committed against Czechs, Poles, Serbs, Frenchmen, Hollanders, Norwegians, Greeks, Belgians and others . . . We formally tell the Germans from the House of Commons that anything they may endure at our hands will be solely in behalf of the Jews. We have lent our names to the threat of a Jewish vengeance.

It seems to me that through the manner of the verdicts and hangings, this threat was carried out. What seems to me to be a most significant event at Nuremberg; where the world's press gathered, passed without mention in the mass-circulation newspapers.

The dates of SENTENCE AND EXECUTION WERE JEWISH FESTIVALS. Rosh Hoshanni, the Jewish New Year and day of repentance, fell on September 26th, 1946—Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement, on October 5th; Hoshana Rabba (when the Jewish God, after an interval during which he considers his verdict on

Robeson Could Demand Peekskill Police Force Be Brought To Trial By UN

Incredible? Not at all!

Under the Genocide Convention, now before the Foreign Relations Committee of the United States Senate, Paul Robeson—known to be affiliated with some 50 Communist front organizations—could accuse the Peekskill police force, and other Peekskill citizens who protested Robeson's riot-rally, of "genocide".

Terms of the nefarious, U.N. Genocide Treaty are such that Robeson, claiming mental harm to a minority group, would have the legal right to demand trial of Peekskill police and citizens before an international court. Further, Russia and her five satellite countries, having ratified these genocide treaties, would play the major role in determining whether or not Peekskill citizens were guilty of "harming" Robeson.

On the complaint of any Communist, Zionist, or other minority group, an American politician, speaker or writer who dared criticize such a minority group could be deported to foreign soil for trial by an international jury.

In time of war, should spies or traitors be injured or killed by an F.B.I. agent, U.S. Army officer, or local police, such action could be construed as a crime of "genocide."

Americans! This is urgent! The Communist and Zionist forces, which are doing everything possible to destroy America and wipe out Christianity, have laid this egg. They are now only waiting for it to hatch!

The Genocide Convention, if ratified by the Senate would:

CURTAIN ALL FREEDOM OF SPEECH
FOR CHRISTIANS and SUPERSEDE ALL AMERICAN FEDERAL, STATE AND LOCAL LAWS.

Americans! You would—legally—be under the thumbs of foreign dictators and Zionist tyrants.

Write your Senator AT ONCE! Tell them you are OPPOSED TO THE GENOCIDE CONVENTION and that it SHOULD NOT BE RATIFIED BY THE UNITED STATES.

FROM EIGHTEEN YEARS OF STUDY OF THE FORCES BEHIND COMMUNISM, WE CAN POSITIVELY SAY THAT IMMEDIATELY AFTER THIS GENOCIDE BILL IS RATIFIED BY OUR SENATE, THERE WILL BE NO FURTHER EFFECTIVE OPPOSITION TO COMMUNISM. THIS BILL MAKES IT ILLEGAL TO OPPOSE THE FORCES WHICH ARE 100% RESPONSIBLE FOR COMMUNISM.

THE GENOCIDE CONVENTION

those at whose instance this Genocide Convention has been drawn, have set forth in true New Deal fashion certain premises whose truth and validity are, to say the least, in grave doubt. The same minority, of course, cooked up these premises.

GENOCIDE DEFINED

Genocide is defined in Article II as—

"... any of the following acts committed with intent to destroy, in whole or in part, a national, ethnical, racial or religious group, as such (bold ours):

- "(a) Killing members of the group;
- "(b) Causing serious bodily or mental harm to members of the group (bold ours);
- "(c) Deliberately inflicting on the group conditions of life calculated to bring about its physical destruction in whole or in part;
- "(d) Imposing measures intended to prevent births within the group;
- "(e) Forcibly transferring children of the group to another group."

We differ strongly with the premise that "at all periods of history genocide has inflicted great losses on humanity." To be sure there have been some instances of genocide where whole races or substantial parts of races have been blotted out. Thus, when the children of Israel captured the city of Jericho, it is recorded that the entire population of men, women and children were put to the sword.

The murder by Soviet Russia of 11,000 Polish officers, merely on the ground, apparently, that they were Polish officers, was a case of genocide. So was the alleged killing by Hitler of large numbers of non-Nazis, many of them of the Jewish faith or race. It is frequently asserted that Hitler killed six million Jews. It has been shown authoritatively that no such number were in fact killed—that the number was probably not in excess of one million. This was bad enough.

FROM THE AMERICAN STANDPOINT

Now, from our standpoint as Americans, killing off a race, or a part of a race, or the members of a religious cult, deplorable as it is, is still no ground for requiring the United States of America in effect to overthrow to a large extent its form of government, by surrendering part of its sovereignty to an international committee. Every state in the Union has laws for the punishment of murder, whether the victims be one or many.

The point at issue is the real purpose of the Genocide Convention. Is it to prohibit mass murder? Or is it to furnish a means whereby any person of any minority, whether Negro, Jew, Chinese or any other, if aggrieved or fancying himself aggrieved, can bring charges against some individual or group before an international committee—and thus submit the fate of supposedly free Americans to the tender mercies of aliens?

Is it not a short cut to a world FEPC, thus making unimportant the success or failure of FEPC in Washington or the state capitals?

To be sure, provision is made in the "Convention" for states and nations to punish such "offenses." It is provided in Article V that—

"The Contracting Parties undertake to enact, in accordance with their respective Constitutions, the necessary legislation to give effect to the provisions of the present Convention and, in particular, to provide effective penalties for persons guilty of genocide or of any of the other acts enumerated in article III." (Bold ours).

Then it is provided in Article VI—

"Persons charged with genocide or any of the other acts enumerated in article III shall be tried by a competent tribunal of the State in the territory in which the act was committed, or by such international penal tribunal as may have jurisdiction with respect to those Contracting Parties which shall have accepted its jurisdiction." (Bold ours.)

Obviously the words bold are the authority for turning over complete jurisdiction over American citizens to this international committee or tribunal. In fact, under Article VI, the international tribunal could take jurisdiction and entertain a criminal prosecution without waiting for the state itself to act in whose territory the alleged offense was committed.

NOTE THIS DEFINITION OF GENOCIDE

Coming back to Article II, we see that one of the definitions of genocide is—

"... with intent to destroy, in whole or in part, a national ethnical, racial or religious group ... (bold ours), to cause

"(b) ... serious bodily or mental harm to members of the group;"

Under this definition it is perfectly clear that the doing of any act by any individual—such as refusal of employment, or blackballing a person for membership in a union or a social club, or the publishing of any comment, no matter how mild, with respect to any member of a minority—could be deemed by the "international penal tribunal" to constitute "mental harm," and hence, under the clear provisions of the Genocide Convention, to be worthy of punishment. And if so, no power in the United States would be able to prevent the transportation of a supposedly free American citizen from his home to Paris or Warsaw or Tel Aviv to stand trial.

Now, one of the grievances cited against King George III by the Declaration of Independence was that he had "transported citizens beyond seas to be tried for pretended offenses." And bearing in mind the prolonged but never finished "prosecution" in Washington of some 30 alleged "seditionists" several years ago, at the instance of elements now pushing this Genocide Convention—and also the current persecution of Mrs. McCullough in Connecticut, what citizen, thus accused, would even be able to pay the costs of his defense overseas?

WHAT ACTS ARE PUNISHABLE?

Under Article III, among the acts which are punishable are—

- "(c) Direct and public incitement to commit genocide;
- "(d) Attempt to commit genocide;
- "(e) Complicity in genocide."

Under some one or other of these three provisions the slightest reference to a member of a minority race or religion—such as a newspaper identifying a man under arrest as a Negro—might be deemed to be a punishable act. Certain American newspapers already have been "induced" not to identify in their columns an individual by race or color.

The American Bar Association in a report on the Genocide Convention, which it strongly opposes, calls attention to the provision that "direct and public incitement to commit genocide" shall be a crime, and then comments as follows:

"This was adopted in spite of repeated objections of the United States representative that it was a plain infringement of freedom of speech and freedom of the press. Who shall judge if political speeches are incitement to genocide—the civil authorities? ... Who shall judge as to freedom of the press? ... Representatives of many countries insisted that as between genocide and freedom of speech and freedom of the press, the latter must give way. The position of our representative seemed to be incomprehensible to many of them ..."

GENOCIDE CONVENTION—MERELY ONE OF SEVERAL

It is interesting to consider this Genocide Convention not only by itself, but in the light of all the other international proposals made to the Congress of the United States.

There is, for instance, the International Trade Organization Charter (ITO), under which, if ratified by the Senate as a treaty, the control of our foreign trade, and presently of our domestic trade, will be taken away from the Congress and the governments of the several states and turned over to an international committee.

There is the so-called "Right to Organize" Convention of the International Labor Organization (ILO), under which, if ratified as a treaty, the relations between workers and their employers will be under the control, not of the American people themselves through their own Congress and through the several state governments, but of an international committee.

Of course these two agreements do not specifically state that, after ratification, the government of any ratifying country will cease to have any authority and that the authority over these several matters will be vested in international committees. But it is perfectly clear from the contexts of the two agreements that the rulings of the two international bodies will prevail where they differ from the laws of Congress and the Constitution and laws of the several states. And we may be sure that these bodies would constantly tend to increase and stretch every power they could spell out of the language of the convention.

So, in effect, the control is taken away from our domestic government and vested in the international bodies.

Then, there is pending before the Congress the so-called International Bill of Rights, of which Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt is one of the authors. This Bill of Rights, if adopted, would supersede that in our own Federal Constitution (of which we have been proud for 160 years), and thereafter the enforcement of the rights of any individuals could be done only through an international tribunal in which the Americans would have a decidedly minority vote. In other words, the protection of our God-given rights reserved to the people would be abolished; and in its place an international committee would tell Americans what their rights are.

Over-shadowing all these alphabetical agencies and the foster-parent of them all, is the United Nations. This organization, the brainchild of Franklin D. Roosevelt, was drafted in a preliminary way at the Dumbarton Oaks Conference at which the executive secretary was one, Alger Hiss. Then it was referred to the San Francisco Conference in the late spring of 1945. The Secretary General of the San Francisco Conference was Alger Hiss. Alger Hiss, as we well know, had also been the right-hand adviser of Mr. Roosevelt at the Yalta Conference, at which the totalitarian views of Stalin dominated the disastrous proceedings.

WHAT MADE AMERICA GREAT

All this furnishes a clue. The serious people of the United States believe the astounding development and progress of their country arose out of the individual freedom they reserved to themselves by the Constitution of the United States and the Bill of Rights. Thomas Jefferson said that "The government is best which governs least." With minds untrammelled by government controls, and moved largely by the simple precepts of the Ten Commandments and regard for their neighbors, they built not only the freest and richest, but also the most philanthropic and charitable nation that ever existed.

Those who conceived the current ideas of national and especially international controls, did not get their views from American history. And since the teaching of American history had been largely superseded in many important American institutions of learning, these ambitious planners were able to hide from the present generation that they, the planners, had borrowed their ideas from tyrannical systems overseas. They got most of them straight from the teachings of Karl Marx, whether by way of Soviet Russia, or the British Fabian Society of Socialists, which latter, as John T. Flynn has shown so well in his book The Road Ahead, are the present-day British Socialist Government.

STOP A MOMENT AND REFLECT

When one sits down and soberly reflects, why in heaven's name should the Americans, of all people, be willing to scrap their traditions and their principles and throw them into a common pot with all the socialistic, half-bankrupt nations of the rest of the world? The idea is fantastic. It would be comic if the efforts of these totalitarians back of UN, ITO, ILO and all the rest had not already made considerable progress and threaten to make further progress. Indeed, their plans are so well laid that we find their propaganda in practically all organizations of any consequence—including even business organizations.

WHO IS BACK OF GENOCIDE?

What kind of people are back of these proposals?

First, a large number of college professors in the universities and teachers in the schools. Part of their motive is clearly idealism; part of it is general unfamiliarity (even though they are professors) with the relation between the American form of government and the prosperous system under which they, as college professors, are drawing now on the whole, quite satisfactory salaries. And, too, of course there are the many professors who are more or less avowedly left-wingers, and who really think that Soviet Russia, or at least bankrupt Socialist Britain (now continuing to exist because we give them a billion dollars a year), offers a better way of life than America has afforded.

Then, many labor union leaders, some of them outright Communists or willing to play with the Communists, and many more with the Socialists, have consistently backed the socialistic and communistic schemes of the International New Dealers. These are among those minorities that so many Republican leaders have continued to toady to—although the instances in recent years when these labor leaders have thrown any

AT LAST THE CRISIS IS HERE — 1950 IS A DECISIVE YEAR In The Struggle For Human Freedom vs. Secret Police Rule

Major Robert
H. Williams

Momentous issues are before Congress and the President—FEPC, immigration, world government, Socialism, the fifth columns of Communism and Zionism, the threat of a third world war.

All these measures are intimately related. If Congress is tricked or pressured into voting wrong on these issues—if you and I elect the wrong men to office this year—we will, within another year or two, find ourselves under a terrorist regime by the Invisible Government which holds the Russian people in its grip and even now wields a terrible power over the White House.

Startling information reveals clearly at last the backers of Communism and Zionism—a small clique, mostly American citizens of a single race, utterly ruthless, maniacal in their quest for world power. These men expect to join hands with old friends and associates, who now rule Russia and Israel, in a world dictatorship. They lure gullible Americans in the name of world peace. If their plan succeeds, we will presently see our cities inundated with millions of Asiatics. Industrial cities will be converted into slave labor camps like those in Russia and Christian civilization, along with the white race, will vanish.

The decision is almost sure to be made, pro or con, in 1950 or 1952.

Such are the findings of Robert H. Williams, wartime Counter Intelligence officer, now a major in Military Intelligence Reserve, in his latest booklet: FEPC AND THE MINORITY MACHINE, just off the press.

The Author of The Anti-Defamation League and Its Use in the World Communist Offensive, The Untold Story of State Medicine, a contributor to Encyclopedia Britannica's "Ten Eventful Years," and called by Upton Close "as conscientious an officer as Military Intelligence ever had"—Major Williams once more scoops the field of journalism in presenting the clearest, simplest, most fearless analysis of the world crisis.

One who read the manuscript called it "a political education in 30 minutes."

This small booklet is MUST reading NOW, at the beginning of this politically critical year. Read the names—the plans! See the photographs of the master minds whose ambitions soar to such fantastic heights! ## Genocide Convention support to the Republican Party are rare indeed. Yet election returns, if nothing else, have frequently shown that vast numbers of working people, many of whom had been forced to join the unions, have little sympathy with the radical political and social views of their leaders.

Then there are the ministers of the Gospel, huge numbers of whom have been persuaded by subtle communist propaganda, the source of which the ministers in question often do not suspect, that the Gospel of Christ requires them to go political.

Fourthly, there are people like Alger Hiss—young men and women who came out of college (often the Harvard Law School) and, frequently without any other experience, entered government service.

The United States is the only large solvent country remaining in the world today. We owe a direct debt of 257 billions—plus some 200 billions of indirect debt. We have an annual budget of 42 billion dollars. Some 30 per cent of the income of all Americans goes to pay for government.

Yet we still have most of our freedoms. The principles underlying individual freedom, and private enterprise, private property and individual initiative had become so thoroughly ingrained in the people that even the devastating effects of the pouring out of precious lives, of national resources and materials in two world wars, and the reckless spending of the two socialistic governments of Roosevelt and Truman, have still left it the richest, most stable country in the world.

Strong as we are, however, yet there are limits beyond which even this great country cannot go. Should confidence be undermined (and there are several ways in which this might happen), the country could slip fast into a bankrupt, totalitarian state. For much of our wealth consists in the fact that as a country we are a going concern. Our wealth is not so much in what we have, but in what we produce.

OUR "WORLD RESPONSIBILITIES"

The assertion is frequently made that the United States "must assume its world responsibilities." So far as this has any meaning, it is a thought and utterance of the international Socialists. For the United States for fifty years past has assumed far greater responsibilities than the people of any other country. During the interval between the world wars, when left-wingers here and abroad were dubbing us "isolationist," we spent many billions of dollars in Europe in the effort to repair the damage done by war. Since the end of World War II we have spent 30 billions of treasure in Europe and other countries.

Clearly, "isolationist," in the language of international left-wingers, means merely unwillingness to give away all we have and descend to the economic and social level of the rest of the world.

If we are to help other nations and peoples to rebuild themselves, the greatest responsibility we have is to repair our own damage, reduce our debt, remain solvent—in fact increase our solvency. We must put our own house in order. For like a strong man, only a strong country can help others.

For decades, as a free Republic we have been an example to all mankind. We are out of character when we weakly yield to the international Socialists and recklessly pour out our wealth for schemes that will destroy both our prosperity and independence.

Hence this nation should highly resolve that it will make no more general international commitments of any kind, for the carrying out of such commitments will water down our material wealth, weaken the fibre of our people, and undermine our liberties.

HERE'S WHAT TO DO

This Genocide Convention should be dropped out of the window and forgotten altogether. The internationalist agency that cooked it up should be told to take it away. To adopt it would merely make present day confusion worse confounded. It would let loose an avalanche of international laws and rulings on top of our national, state and local laws. It would increase the cost of living and the burden of life for every American. In addition, it would build up a new international bureaucracy manned, probably for the most part, by the members of the very minorities who thought up the scheme.

We urge the Senate of the United States not to ratify the Genocide Convention.

We urge every American who values his liberties to write his two Senators and express his views.

From Smoke To Smother

By Douglas Reed

(360 pgs. cloth bound, $3.)

Occasionally there comes to our desk a book carefully written and chillingly discerning in its analysis of world events—FROM SMOKE TO SMOTHER is one of these. Mr. Reed, the brilliant English journalist, writing from first-hand experience in Europe since 1933, traces the pattern of political Zionism in the last two World Wars and in English Socialism today.

There was, he says, a war within World Wars I and II, an unknown war which was "that of spreading chaos, and destroying Christian nationhood in Europe."

He writes: "It seems to me that the case is proved. The Black Religion and its organization exists... its literature and teachings during two centuries may now be compared with the pattern of events... the real aim would be to complete the destruction of Europe; to set up some evil 'World Government', straddling the world from Fort Knox to Jerusalem and to use the men and money of the last great states of Christendom for that purpose."

There's a smile or two in Mr. Reed's book—a few tears, too—but, most important of all, a chill of apprehension as one realizes the truth of the plot for Christian destruction; a plot so nearly completed.

The News and Courier
Charleston, S. C.
Gentlemen:

If any gentlemen or ladies think they are free, and that this is a free country, I just want them to read their Income Tax papers carefully; and if they still think so, they have a wonderful imagination. And of many of them, their employers take heavy toll from their pay checks, without saying even, by your leave.

All the money is squandered, and vast sums poured down foreign rat holes, where it is not appreciated, increases foreign Communist strength, and lowers the American self respect.

The Sixteenth Amendment is the guilty one in this instance. Write your Senator and Congressman to fight for the repeal of or a change in the Amendment, to make it read something like this—

The nature of my business is my own affair

My total receipts were $.....

My total cost to make it were $.....

My net income is $.....

Exemptions: Married persons and all single persons $2,000.00 each, and $500.00 for each child under 21 years of age; all disabled, or blind persons, and all persons 60 years old and up.

Tax rates, up to $2,000.00 no tax, and no returns necessary, $2,001.00 to $24,999.00, 10% of net income; $25,000.00 and up to as much as a man can make, 20% of net income.

Who minds how much a man can make, if he has the ability, it is his. Besides this will save hundreds of carloads of paper.

As one lawyer has expressed it, "The Sixteenth (or Income Tax) Amendment is being used to Communize and Impoverish the United States of America, to finance Socialism in England and to spread Communism over the remainder of the World at the expense of the American tax payers."

Sincerely,

(Signed) D. F. JAMISON.

THE FABLE OF THE FUNNY BUSINESS

A more than moderately bright boy was graduated from what is called an institution of higher learning. He had decided on his Career. He intended himself for Public Life. He did not consider submitting himself to the will of the electorate. That might require too long a buildup. He did not wait to run for office. He decided to serve in national and international affairs by appointment to an office, preferably in the department of state where he could wear the appropriate Dress and meet Interesting People.

To prepare for this appointment he joined the Communist party. He was, as has been said, more than moderately bright. He knew if he joined the Republican party the Democrats in office would have no truck at all with him. If he joined the Democratic party he would be in a patronage scramble and he wouldn't get anything unless a Boss thought the appointment would do him some Political Good. But if he joined the Communist party a job handling Confidential Matters and Secret Papers would be coming his way.

And it so happened. When the young man was found copying secret documents it was enough for him to explain that he liked to do his homework in the fileroom. He was a frequent visitor at the Russian embassy and went strolling in the park with a pretty secretary. He went abroad twice on forged passports, and once drank vodka with Molotov. He found occasion to perjure himself five or six times but Enjoyed the Confidence of his superiors.

The Russians did not quite make him out. They couldn't figure him or others like him or their superiors. The picking was too easy. How did they know it wasn't a plant? No country could be so much of a Pushover.

Mr. Stalin thought there must be a lot of Funny Business going on because he did not have to slip any money to persons who worked in filerooms and walked in the park. He knew that nearly all the people of the United States were hep to communism as a bloody fraud. Yet so many of his few could get appointments allowing access to information of supreme importance!

The Moral of this Fable is that Truth may be stranger than Fiction but it has to Exert itself to keep up with Mr. Truman's state department.

VENGEANCE AT NUREMBERG?

every single human being, and may still pardon sinners, delivers his final judgment) on October 16th.

Judgment at Nuremberg was pronounced on September 30th and October 1st (between the Jewish New Year and Day of Atonement). The executions were carried out just after midnight in the morning of October 16th, Hoshana Rabba. For Jewry everywhere there was an unmistakable significance in these dates. To Gentiledom everywhere they meant no more than any others.

The trial and executions took place in the American zone. It appears to me that these symbolic dates must have been deliberately chosen and that their selectors were in a position to make the American authorities do their bidding.

One British journal (the Manchester Guardian) gave space to a letter from a reader who said of the trial: "The four nations... have now openly renounced Christianity through their leaders... There was a direct choice to be made between 'an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth' and 'hewing Agag in pieces' on one side and 'Vengeance is Mine' on the other. Britain, America, France and Russia have made that choice in favor of savage pre-Christian rites."

AN OBSERVER IN SINGAPORE REPORTS:

"Russian policy is now crystal clear: make business unprofitable—more trouble—more regulations and more regulators, then more expense and more taxes—more inflation... keep things in a turmoil until the one strong nation, the UNITED STATES; has a breakdown."

Let all patriotic Americans compare the above with the program which the Truman administration is following and let their common sense and love of country tell them how to work and vote against any and all adherents of the Truman Welfare State.

The battle for America will be won or lost at the next Congressional election, so examine carefully the record and deeds of each candidate lest he be one selected by the socialistic coterie.
